By Sheila Nero June 18, 2015

When the revived Golden Anchor sponsored the Pewaukee Lake Water Ski Club's debut show on Memorial Day...

The restaurant on Pewaukee Lake's northwestern shore took a while to reach its own debut. It experienced a delay...

Open since May 18, the former Dylan's Steakhouse offers a small boat dock that brings in customers who order takeout...

The menu

Executive Chef Dennis Stukel, a native of Pewaukee, leads the kitchen, with its Raw Bar featuring daily raw and baked oyster selections...

Wisconsin touchstones include fried smelt and Ma Baensch's herring, along with a Friday fish fry menu of perch, walleye...

The background

Chaz Hastings of the town of Erin in Washington County bought the property in March from John Werner of Oconomowoc...

Hastings and his Golden Anchor business partner, Josh Neureuther, also are partners in Old Town Inn and Von Rothenburg Bier Stube...

The tables

A range of diners, from children to seniors, gathered during a recent weekend lunch. Most wore shorts; tan and navy blue were popular...

Neureuther, who is a native of Stone Bank, said, "Growing up in the area, I remember all the lakeside restaurants that provided great food..."

Party requests are handled depending on day of the week and group size. A children's menu, high chairs and crayons are available...
